MALA Annual Conference & Dementia Summit (Virtual):

Dementia and Persons Living with Developmental Disabilities

on: September 30, 2020

Presenters: Teepa Snow, MS, OTR/L, FAOTA, Positive Approach, LLC

Course Description: Teepa has specifically designed to help you better understand and meet the needs of persons with developmental disabilities who are also living with dementia. She will highlight some of the commonly unrecognized signs of the onset of dementia in this population that make "behavior plans" ineffective. Teepa will also present methods for the development of new care routines and daily programming. Emphasis will be on early recognition and planning effectively for the person's future as established habits and routines are lost.
